2019 LOK SABHA ELECTION

General elections were held in India in seven phases from 11 April to 19 May 2019 to elect the members of the 17th Lok Sabha.

Votes were counted and the result was declared on 23rd May.

The election resulted in a landslide victory of the BJB which won 303 seats and formed the Government.

Around 912 million people were eligible to vote, and voter turnout was over 67 percent - the highest ever, as well as the highest ever participation by women voters

Since voting is the right for Indian citizen everyone must vote.

If everyone votes we can be able to choose the right leader of India.

Most of them were small with regional appeal. Moree than 650 parties contested in these elections.

The main parties are the Bharatya Janata Party (BJB) and the Indian National Congress (INC)

The Bharatya Janata Party received 37.76%of the vote, the highest vote share by a political party since the 1989 general election, and won 303 seats, further increasing its substantial majority.

In our opinion it's great victory of BJB gaining the trust of people is not an easy thing but it is also their responsibility to satisfy their needs and respect eacch and every citizen. This Lok Sabha election was a great victory and turning point.

Not only the winning party BJB's respoonsible every Parties parrticipated also it's their responsible to support people.
